EVENTS

NASCSP CSBG Monitor's Training

November 16-19, 2010; Sacramento, CA

Make plans to attend NASCSP's annual training for state CSBG monitors. This three and a half day training is an overview of a systems approach to monitoring and will include in-depth review of key areas such as governance and fiscal monitoring. It will also include a review of the Standard Monitoring for CSBG and State Self Assessment tools produced by the NASCSP Monitoring Workgroup. Moreover, this training will enable participants to develop an action plan for improving their state's current monitoring tool and process. Learn more...

Grantsmanship Training Program

November 15-19, 2010; Washington, DC

Designed for both novice and experienced grantseekers, the Grantsmanship Training Program is a comprehensive, hands-on workshop that covers researching funding sources and writing and reviewing real proposals. The program will teach you to use The Grantsmanship Center's proposal writing format, the most widely used in the world. During the workshop you will search out funding sources and, as part of a team, you will develop a proposal for your own agency or help a classmate develop one. You will leave this workshop with new skills and the ability to apply those skills to the needs of your own organization. Learn more...

Webcast: America's Fiscal Choices: Strengthening the Economy and Building for the Future

Tuesday, October 5; 9 AM EDT

The conference will bring together experts for an important discussion about federal budget priorities and how to build a prosperous future for the United States and the American people. Learn more...
